CITY NOT GIVEN ALL TERRITORY

Part of Braddock Heights is not awarded in Annexation Suit

CARDWELL'S DECISION

New Northern Limits Will Be Extension of Present line About 600 Feet South of Poor House.

By the terms of the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals which was rendered on last Thursday Alexandria will secure practically all of the territory asked for in its annexation suit. The complete text of Judge Cardwell's decision reached here this morning and the decision is final so far as the territory given. In brief Alexandria's new city liimts will include all of the territory asked for from Fairfax county, which includes all the land lying south of the present city liimts to the middle of Hunting Creek and west to a line near the residence of Walter Roberts on Duke street extended. It will include the Union station, and all of George Washington Park. From Alexandria county it will secure Rosemont and a portion of Braddock Heights. The north line of the new limits is an extension of the northern line of the present limits which is about five hundred feet south of the Poor House lane. This will include all of Rosemont and about one-half of Braddock Heights. Cottage Park and all of Potomac yards is excluded. There is still some question as to the poor house as the decision specifically states that the poor house is to be included in the new territory, yet the poor house is 600 feet away from the line as laid down by the court.

The decision of the court defining the territory is as follows:

"Our examination and consideration of the evidence in this case brings us readily to the conclusion that the Circuit Court should not have dismissed this proceeding, but should have adjudged and ordered therein that there should be annexed to the city of Alexandria so much of the territory sought to be annexed as is necessary to include within the city's limits its high school with the necessary grounds attached thereto, its reservoir, poor house, and cemetery, the national cemetery, the roadbed and tracks of the Southern and the Washington Southern Railroads, from the point where they enter the city's boundary on the north to Hunting Creek on the south, including the Union Station, freight depot and other buildings or lands of the said railroads, if any, adjacent, to their Union Station and freight depot; also the lands west and northwest of the city's present boundary, known as Wheat and Suter's subdivision, Rosemont, and West End, lying on both sides of the little River Turnpike, and also all lands, structures, and streams that will be embraced within the city's boundaries by an extension of the northern boundary line westwardly to a point from which a line may be run southwardly and above the fork of Hooff's Run near the Braddock Road as shown upon the map of Alexandria county with the record in this case, to Janney's Lane or Road, thence southwardly and by the most practicable route to the center of Hunting Creek; thence with the middle of the main channel of Hunting Creek to its entrance into the Potomac River; and thence up to the west line of the Potomac River to the point of the beginning of the present boundary line between the city and Fairfax County; all of the territory embraced within the lines indicated to become annexed to and form a part of the territory possessed and controlled by the city, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the ordinance adopted by the City Council upon which this proceeding is founded."

As heretofore stated the costs of the suit were awarded against the defendant counties.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Bread riots are reported from Valladolid, Aragon, Valencia and other Spanish cities as a result of the shortage of food.

The Spanish government has prohibited the export of oil, fish, coal, vegetables, meat, grain, metals and other minerals and foodstuffs.

Gen. Baron Sievers, who commanded the Tenth Russian army when it was destroyed by the German forces, committed suicide as a result of his rout in the Mazurian Lake region, according to a Petrograd dispatch.

Peter Krakus and Bernard Montvid, two desperadoes, who were mixed up in a shooting affray last Saturday in Wilmington, Del., in which one policeman was killed, three seriously wounded, and one civilian wounded, confessed yesterday that they murdered Rev. Joseph Zebris, and his housekeeper at New Britain, Conn.

Miss Hannah M. Horton, 82 years old, was found dead in her home in Goshen, N. Y., yesterday and the police believe she was murdered by robbers.

After a meeting of the directors of the Southern Railway in New York yesterday afternoon it was announced that no dividends would be paid on the preferred stock in April.

The British admiralty has issued an official statement reporting the loss of the auxiliary cruiser Bayano, while on patrol duty. Evidence points to her having been torpedoed by a submarine. But twenty-seven of the Bayano's crew of about 215 are known to survive. Fourteen officers, including the commander, are presumed to be dead.

A tragedy, said to have followed an illicit love affair, was enacted when Robert Jansens, a Belgian chauffeur, died from self-inflicted wounds in Paris. Before cutting his own throat the chauffeur had attacked the wife of Gerard Fennell, a rich American business man, who employed him, cutting her severely about the face and arms. According to Jansen's statement made on his death bed, Mrs. Fennell spurned his advances and drove him to the tragedy. On the other hand Mrs. Gerard denied there was any love affair and said that Jansens had attacked her because he had been discharged from her husband's service.

Whatever was lacking to convince Washington of the acuteness of the Mexican situation, yesterday's report of the slaughter of John B. McManus, of Chicago, under the American flag in Mexico City supplied. The Zapata chieftains, whose soldiers committed the outrage, have proised all due reparation, including the immediate punishment of the men responsible, but this prompt response to the demands made on behalf of the United States government has not obscured the gravity of the offense nor its significance as to the situation of Aemricans in Mexico.

SHOOTS BRIDE AND HIMSELF.

New York Man Dies of Wound But His Wife, it is Said, May Recover.

New York, March 13.—After accusing his bride of three months of being unfaithful, William Brown, 35, shot her twice in the left breast in a furnished rooming house at 107 West Sixty-third street, and then shot himself in the head with the same revolver. He died at 7:30, in the Polyclinic Hospital, without regaining consciousness, but his wife may recover.

Brown formerly lived at 217 Eighty-ninth street, Brooklyn, with his parents. His wife was Miss May Dunn, whose home was said to be 540 Fifty-six street, Brooklyn. She is 26 years old. They returned the last of February from a wedding trip to the Pacific coast, and hired a room at 107 West Sixty-third street. Brown went to work as a brakeman for the New York Central, but later lost his job.

Louis A. Harmon, who had a room across the hall, heard the mquarreling several times during the last few days. Brown left a note directed to his mother, Mrs. Grace Brown, in which he said he had been suspicious of his wife for some time.

INVESTIGATING JUDGE'S CONDUCT

Chichester's Actions on the Bench Subject of Inquiry

VOTING AT MIDNIGHT.

Delegate Powell Reiterates His Charges Which Are Answered by the Spottsylvania Judge.

Richmond, March 13—Five minutes before the midnight hour last night the House of Delegates adopted a resolution calling for the appointment of a special committee of five to investigate the charges preferred by Delegate S. P. Powell against Judge R. H. L. Chichester, of the fifteenth Judicial Circuit.

The resolution accompanied the report of the Courts of Justice Committee, to which the Powell charges had been referred. The report contained the findings of the committee at two sessions held yesterday, one in the morning, the other in the afternoon.

The morning session, except for a few minutes at the opening and for twenty minutes before adjournment, when Delegate Powell and Judge Chichester were permitted to make brief addresses, was executive. The afternoon session was behind closed doors.

C. M. Chichester, brother of the accused jurist, appeared before the committee at the morning session and requested that an immediate and thorough investigation be recommended to the House.

With Chairman Walter T. Oliver presiding, the Courts of Justice Committee of the House of Delegates entered upon consideration of the Powell charges at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. The committee met behind closed doors.

After the doors had been opened Mr. Powell made his charges against Judge Chichester.

Judge Chichester was subsequently invited to address the committee.

"I am before you full of righteous indignation." Judge Chichester began. "I feel that a great injustice has been done." He asked for a copy of the Powell statement containing the charges, which was handed to him.

The jurist reviewed the charges, taking them in the sequence in which they appeared, and denied that any of them had a basis in fact. He said he had made his appointments, in the case specified and in all other instances, without consideration for political influence of any kind. When he appointed Judge Waller to the office of Commonwealth's attorney he was aware that there was a division of sentiment in the county. Mr. Powell was candidate for the office. He regarded Judge Waller as better fitted for the important office, and for that reason he appointed him. He denied emphatically that he had appointed men to the electoral board or any other board whom he did not know to be fitted for the position, either from his own acquaintance with them or from the indorsement of other citizens in whom he felt that he could place absolute reliance.

TAX IMPOSED ON STEAM RAILROADS

Compromise on Resolution Nets State $85,000 per Annum

WANT COMPENSATION.

Final Adjournment of Special Session of Legislature Expected today —Wilson Upheld.

(Special Dispatch to the Gazette.)

Richmond, Va., March 13—The Senate today defeated the Torrens system of land registration by a vote of 16 to 13.

Richmond, March 13.—The fight led by Delegate O. L. Stearnes, of Roanoke County, in the House of Delegates to increase the State's revenues from railroad taxation to the extent of $160,000 a year, terminated last night in a compromise, by which the railroad tax is increased $85,000.

The Senate yesterday amended the public service corporations bill so as to eliminate the Stearnes amendment, which fixed the tax on the gross receipts of railroad at 1 1-4 per cent. When the House refused to accept the bill without the Stearnes amendment a conference on the measure was conceded by the Senate. This committee, consisting of Senators Blanks, Goolrick and Drewry and Delegates Stearnes, Pennington and H. C. Weaver, returned a report recommending as a compromise that the tax be fixed at 1 1-4 per cent, and extending the same tax to steamboat companies, which added to the State's revenues, about $5,000 additional.

The conference report was accepted by both branches, and the bill was passed.

Another interesting feature of the day's proceedings was the adoption by the House of the Gregory resolution, allowing each member compensation for his services this week to the extent of $50, exclusive of the mileage each is to receive. Only seven members voted against the compensation bill, which was pronounced by several of the lawyers unconstitutional. The measure was concurred in by the Senate. It will be sent to the Governor today.

The bill appropriating $106,500 for the uses of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board in the campaign for the eradication of the foot-and-mouth disease in cattle, was returned to the House last night with amendments by the Senate, but will probably be passed today.

The House went on record at the morning session as indorsing the candidacy of S. A. Woodward, the Delegate from Norfolk city, for the postmastership of Norfolk.

The Horner-Meetze resolution, indorsing the policy of President Woodrow Wilson, was adopted at the morning session and concurred in by the Senate in the afternoon.

PRIEST TO AID MILITARY

Pope Says They Must Not seem Lacking in Patriotism

Rome, March 13—It is announced from the Vatican that the Pope has directed that all parish priests in Italy be instructed to aid and co-operate with the military and civil authorities in case of the mobilization of the Italan army.

The announcement is regarded as of great importance coming as it does upon the heels of the earlier action of the Vatican in instructing all bishops and archbishops of the kingdom to warn all the clergy that while the church was profoundly working in the course of peace, nothing could be said which would hint at an absence of patriorism in church members, or in the clergy.

The general situation is becoming more intense, and the popular mind believes that intervention is imminent. The police are increasing their surveillance of all Austrians and Germans in fear or reprisals in case of decisive mobilization especially do they attempt to blow up the gunpowder magazines or to damage the Government factories and dock yards.

FIRE ENDS NEGRO WAKE.

Corpse, Child of Dead Man And Another Negro Burned—Several Mourners Injured.

Salisbury, Md., March 13.—A negro wake, held Wednesday night over the corpse of John Thomas, who lived across the Maryland line in Virginia, was broken up early yesterday morning when the house caught fire and was destroyed.

In the rush to escape from the building the mourners forgot the corpse and it was consumed. A 12-month-old baby of the dead man and David Smith were asleep in an adjoining room and were burned to death. John Smith was injured severely in getting the panic-stricken guests from the house and is not expected to recover.

Thomas was the foreman for John S Ames, a farmer. His funeral was to be held today, and many of the colored people of Painter and the neighboring country attended the wake. David Smith said the mourners had dropped off to sleep and a log rolled out of the fire place, setting fire to the pine floor. Several of the other guests were burned before they could escape.

HUBBY SLEPT IN BARN.

When Wife's Parents Caught Him he Started into Cursing.

St. Louis, Mo., March 13.—Mrs. Sadie Homan, 16 years old, who caused her husband, Joseph, to be fined $100 by Judge Sanders, on a charge of disturbing her parents' peace, told how Homan slept in a barn in the rear of her home for several weeks to win her back after they had separated, and how, moved by pity, she had fed him nightly by giving him a "handout" of food through the kitchen window.

When he wanted the food he would whistle to let her know he was there. She said, also, that she gave him blankets from her bed to keep him warm while he slept in the barn.

Homan was arrested for using abusive language toward Mrs. Homan's mother, Mrs. Pearl Dean, when she asked him to leave the premises and quit trying to get her daughter to go with him.

Thursday night he went to a rear window, as usual, and whistled for his "handout."

Her parents heard the whistle, and as it sounded to them like a signal, they investigated. Homan was seen crouching in a corner of the yard.

When Mrs. Dean told him to go, he went to the street and cursed her, she said.

The Homans were married last August, after a three-week courtship. Since then Homan has worked only three weeks, Mrs. Homan said. Mrs. Dean called Homan "the strangest man she ever saw."

Homan said he was willing to work, but that he could find nothing to do.

SIEGE OF SMYRNA BY ALLIED FORCES

Chief City of Asiatic Turkey Will Fall Within Few Hours

FLEET REINFORCED

Shelling of Forts Continues—Turkish Projectile Explodes on Deck of British Ship Triumph.

London, March 13—A determined effort to take Smyrna, chief city of Asiatic Turkey is now being made by the allied naval forces in the east.

Six warships from the allied fleet at the Dardanelles have re-enforced Real Admiral Peirse's squadron. The city may fall before many hours.

Among the warships sent to Smyrna was the battleship Triumph, according to Athens dispatches. As in the Dardanelles fighting, the Triumph was sent to the head of the fighting line. She shelled the Smyrna forts for several hours before a Turkish projectile exploded on her deck and forced her to withdraw. The damage was slight, and she was expected to resume her place in the line today.

All day yesterday the Queen Elizabeth and other British and French warships continued a lively fire against the forts inside the Dardanelles. Toward dusk they advanced to a point near Karantina and destroyed a bridge about two and a half miles from the town of Dardanelles.

TRIED TO RAM PRINZ EITEL

Captain of Steamer Willerby Tells of Effort to Hit German Cruiser

Newport News, Va., March 13—How he had tried to ram the Prinz Eitel Friedrich when ordered to stop is described by Captain Wedgwood of the British steamer Willerby, sunk by the German 500 miles off Pernambuco. The Willerby was a new steamer, launched at Sunderland last fall.

When he first sighted the Prinz Eitel, Captain Wedwood said the two ships were drawing together on course at right angles. He tried to maneuver the Willerby so that he could meet the Eitel bow on, but the German captain brought his bow up under the Willerby's stern. I thought it would be better to take to our own boats at sea than to be taken on board the German," said Captain Wedgwood, so I rang for full speed astern and told the chief engineer "Give her hell as hard as she'll go.'

"The German went full speed ahead and we just did miss him. Both of us would have gone to the bottom if I had hit him.

"It was such a close shave there was a great commotion on the cruiser. "We could see them waving their arms and shouting in a great state of excitement. Then their commander shouted to me, 'Stop or I'll fire,' and I stopped.

"He sent a young officer across to me in a small boat, and I was ordered to haul down my flag. I refused. Then he hauled it down himself, tucked it under his arm and said to me, 'You're my prisoner and your ship is a prize of war.'

"They took all my provisions and ordered us off the boat. When we had left they fixed the dynamite charge and set it off. The Willerby was in ballast, and soon filed, going down head first. Her stern stuck up high, and the force of air pressure blew up her decks. When she went down the whistle gave one blast, like the ship was saying 'good-bye'. Hatches and pieces of wreckage kept coming up to the surface, some of them blown high into the air, after the ship had disappeared under the waves."

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

Madame Mountford, who is well-known in Alexandria and who has lectured here frequently, gave another of her interesting talks on the Holy Land last night in the Young People's Building for the benefit of the Red Cross work. The lecture was attended by a large crowd and nothing better about the lecture can be said than that it was as good as Madame Mountford usually gives. The speaker was introduced by the Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Church.

The talk was illustrated with a large and comprehenisve map of Jerusalem and the vicinity, and after the lecture proper a number of slides were shown.

The announcement that Dr. H. G. Harryman, organist of the Virginia Theological Seminary, will give an organ recital in St. Paul's Church next Monday evening, has attracted much interest. Dr. Harryman will have Mrs. A. J. Brylawski, of Washington, assist him, and those who attend the recital will have the added pleasure of hearing her exquisite contralto voice. Mrs. Brylawski is universally popular in the musical world of Washington. The recital is under the auspices of the Junior Auxiliary, and a silver offering will be taken for missions.

Mrs. Charles Kicherer celebrated her 46th anniversary last night at her home in Fairfax county. Quite a large number of her friends were present.

$100 FOR RETURN OF KEY.

Harrisonburg Elks Offer Reward Following "Theft" of Golden Emblem.

The theft of the "golden key" from Elks Home on East Market Street Wednesday afternoon by two members of Alexandria Lodge was the principal topic of conversation among Elks and their friends in Harrisonburg yesterday says the Harrisonburg News Record. The members were greatly chagrined that Robert S. Barrett and James W. Bales, the Alexandrians who came here with the Scottish Rite Masons, should have gotten away with the key.

The matter was one of the principal subjects of discussion at the lodge session last night, when the district deputy grand exalted ruler, John S. Draper, of Pulaski, made an official visit.

V. R. Slater, P. J. Lamb, Jr., Otto A. Wise, and A. M. Loewner, the members of Harrisonburg Lodge who stole the key from Petersburg Lodge five years ago, last night made the following offer:

"We will pay $100 reward for the return of the "golden key" stolen from B. P. O. E. Elks Home, No. 450 and the conviction of the two thieves, who so maliciously entered the home and confiscated the key."

Sergeant Scott later arested William Dove, a resident of Fairfax county, for drunken and disorderly conduct and assaulting a man named Shepherd in a public house. Dove was fined $20. F. A. Parsons, charged with assaulting Dove, was fined $5.

Sampson Rodgers, had been arrested by officer Reed, for being drunk on the street, but it was necessary to continue his case.

"GREATER" ALEXANDRIA

Officials Planning Improvements in Municipal Departments.

With annexation of a large portion of the territory asked for assured, city officials of Alexandria are already planning extensive improvements in its municipal departments. While the revenue to be received by the city from the annexed territory for the next five years must be spent on the new portion of the city, it can be spent in such a way as to benefit not only the new section of the city but also the older portion. The new high school building, for instance, which will soon be started will be almost entirely withn the zone added to the city limits by the Supreme Court's decision.

The police force will receive considerable additions. Some time ago when annexation was first considered the police commissioners made a study of the situation and decided that they could handle the enlarged city with the addition of an automobile patrol, with two officers assigned as chaffeurs and two mounted policemen. They also decided that a police call box system was an absolute necessity. The increased cost to the city will be about $3,600 per annum.

The fire department will need a new station to be erected in the northwestern section in the vicinity of Rosemont and a chemical engine to be stationed in West End. The addition of modern motor truck for the Relief Hook and Ladder Co., so that quick response can be made to the outlying districts, and a fire alarm system will give Alexandria excellent fire protection.

The school situation will be well taken care of by the new high school building to be erected at the corner of West and Cameron streets and two school houses already leased in the city will be compelled to pay Alexandria and Fairfax counties for these two buildings.

New streets and sewers will be required in the new section and it is expected that these will be provided for with the proceeds of a bond issue. The assessed value of the property to be taken in is about $1,000,000 and under the provisions of the state constitution the city will be permitted to issue $180,000 in bond to make public improvements in that section.

The water and gas question has already been taken care of.

SEMINARY NOTES.

Christmas Term Examination Ended This Week.

The examinations incident to the close of the Christmas term of the Seminary were concluded on Tuesday of this week, and the last on Easter term began with the resumption of lectures on Wednesday. This will comprise eight weeks of actual lecture work.

A number of students have been suffering from attacks of the prevalent grippe, but are recovering and most of them attending to their regular work. Professor Rollins had quite an attack, and was confined to his room for several days. We are glad to say he is out again.

Dr. Green went to Leesburg yesterday evening to hold one of the Lenten services in his old parish, where the Rev. Mr. Burkhardt is now rector.

The Rt. Rev. J. P. Tyler, D. D., Missionary Bishop of the Episcopal Church in North Dakota, visited the Seminary and delivered an interesting address last night. During his visit he was the guest of Professor Bell.

A letter has been received from Dean Crawford at the Seminary, in which he states that he is having a delightful visit to his brother, where he is enjoying a beautiful view of the Gulf of Mexico from the rectory at Biloxi, and the delightful climate of that section. Mrs. Crawford and their daughter, Miss Beatrice, expect to visit New Orleans before their return to 'The Hill.'

Dr. and Mrs. Wallis and a party of students attended the lecture of Madame Mountford in Alexandria last night on Jerusalem, and enjoyed her eloquent descreption of the 'Holy City'—with her vivid illustrations of Biblical references to the manners and customs of ancient days, which are still familiar scenes in its present day life.

LET DIPLOMACY SETTLE THE MATTER.

The high-handed act of the commander of the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich in sinking the American bark William P. Frye is, as might have been expected, repudiated by Germany, and that country will make proper amends. This should be an end of all argument. The people of this country were, at first, naturallly incensed when it was learned that the foreign cruiser, after committing this thoughtless act, entered and dropped anchor in an American port. This procedure was, however, parallel with the action of British ships in 1812, which, after taking citizens of the United States from peaceable American merchantmen and impressing them into the service of Great Britain, passed into the same harbor (Hampton Roads,) and anchored, without saluting our forts, as much as to ask, "Now, what are you going to do about it?"

The London press is rabid in denouncing Germany for doing literally what that country did at a time when the United States was in no condition to take her own part.

According to a dispatch from Amsterdam, the sinking of the American bark "has caused a most painful impression in German official quarters, where it is ascribed to the unfortunate zeal of an excitable captain." The dispatch further says:

"No representation has yet been received from Washington, which is understood to be awaiting an official report. It is expected strong representations will be made. The German foreign office will meet these in a conciliatory spirit because the sinking of the ship was unwarranted."

The London newspapers are devoting much space to the procedures of the German auxilary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich and the complications they suppose have arisen as the result of her arrival at a United States port after sinking an American vessel.

"The Americans have now had brought home to them in practical fashion what Germany's piratical practices may' mean to neutrals," says the Evening Standard. "The commander of the armed liner has before him a task that will need all his astuteness if he is to come out with clean hands as far as America is concerned."

All such expressions are premature and uncalled for. No doubt England would rejoice to see the United States among Germany's enemies while the present war is on, but the sinking of the Frye will not precipitate it if the Fatherland pursues the sensible and friendly course announced [illegible] the Frye incident in a manner satisfactory to this country.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION.

During the past few years Mexico has not only given the United States trouble, but other countries have been [illegible] by the reign of terror there. [illegible] strifes have been chronic [illegible] four years. Leader after leader has risen to the surface by the [illegible] has been deposed, and although the United States has resorted to every means consistent with its honor to aid in establishing a staple government in the land of the Montezumas, conditions remain unchanged. Mexico is still a land of strife, with nothing assuring in the vista.

Adventurer after adventurer comes to the front to pass away within a few weeks to make room for his successor. Human life is no longer safe in the storm-tossed country, while refugees are huddled here and there living in dread of the sword and about to perish for the necessaries of life. All this in one of the most fertile lands upon the globe, and abounding in [illegible] mineral wealth.

The Gazette has at times thought that the United States, which poses as policeman of the western hemisphere in order to maintain its Monroe doctrine, should bring such a state of affairs to a close, and let irresponsible and self-created officials know that if they are unable to cope with the situation, their neighbors will intervene and bring peace where there has been no peace so long.

The murder of John McManus, a prominent American, in Mexico City, is the last high-handed act reported. The ephemeral leaders are full of apologies to the United States and offer to make reparation. Of course they will. But can that restore the life of the American who has been wantonly murdered? No self-respecting country can deal diplomatically with highwaymen.

The history of Mexico is one of the saddest in the annals of the human race. Its civilization may have been synchronous with that of Egypt, as when Cortez made his way into the country he and his Spanish followers were surprised to find such conditions in a land he supposed contained nothing but nude savages. But while North and South America have flourished since the days of the early discoverers, Mexico has rather deteriorated, and today her internal conditions are a disgrace to the age.

DEATH OF MRS. ROCKEFELLER.

John D. Rockefeller is now speeding on an extra train from Florida to his home, Pocantico Hills, where the wife of his youth, who has shared in his joys and sorrows for half a century, lies inanimate, the Good Shepherd having closed her eyes in death, while the husband was spending a short vacation in the land of flowers. The fact that the sorrowing husband is a millionaire is no reason why any more sympathy should be expressed for his bereavement than that of an honest laborer, who having passed through this most solemn of all ordeals, leaves his home the day following that on which earth has swallowed up the remains of his dear one, committing his little ones to the care of angels while he continues his plod of life, realizing that he will return at dusk and cast his eyes upon him or to minister to his little ones.

Although with millions at their command, Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller, like all others of the human race, were unable to build their walls high enough to keep out trouble, that heritage of all. They, too, were compelled to stand by the casket of a tender ewe lamb to whom the heavenly gates had opened. The aged husband will soon be in the presence of the still cold ear of death again.

The couple entered the portals of manhood and womanhood unpretentiously. Mr. Rockefeller was a country boy, and Miss Spelman, who became his wife, was a school teacher. It was Orpheus and Eurydice from the beginning, and two souls with but a single thought throughout their long lives.

Despite her husband's great wealth, Mrs. Rockefeller received her few guests simply. It is said she went 50 years without having a picture taken.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

High School Celebrates Anniversary of St. Patrick Last Night.

Three classes of the Alexandria High School celebrated last night the approaching anniversary of St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, with the Sophomores as hosts to the Juniors and Seniors. The vernancy of socks and ties worn by the guests was for once in perfect harmony with the surroundings. The decorations in the hall were long green streamers draped around in pleasing effect.

Vocal and instrumental selections were rendered by members of the entertaining class, which was followed by the pinning of shamrocks to Tipperary which was represented by a large shamrock on the map of Ireland placed on the wall. The shamrock of Miss Marion Dickert came directly over the site of Tipperary.

Another interesting game was the shadowgraphs made by certain of the girls on white curtains. Waller Barrett guessed the greatest number of these.

The supper table in the upper hall was a worthy tribute to the decorating abilities of the Sophomore class. At every place was a small ice cream brick decorated with either an Irish flag or a tiny shamrock, and at the side of each place was St. Patrick's pipe tinted in gold with the A. H. S. letters and those of the classes present. This hall was also decorated with Irish green and the harp.

After the refreshments singing dancing, and other games were resumed, and the guests departed feeling that they had never been so royally entertained before in their lives.

In the first game of the season the A. H. S. second team registered an overwhelming victory over the Thomson School baseball nine of Washington. The score was 27 to 3. "Buster" Barnett started for the High School and "Lefty" Gainer finished, with Summers behind the bat. The second nine at the A. H. S. this year is the strongest yet and will make the first team go some. The first team will play it first game very soon.

The High School week at The Richmond was continued into this week and the whole affair will end tonight. Quite a number of tickets have been sold for the benefit of the Boys' Athletic Association from Gibson's Drug Store and the pupils have also been busy. The money secured in this way is to be used by the athletic association for carrying on this year's baseball.

The postponed meeting of the Literary Society held Monday afternoon was largely taken up by instructions given by Mr. Prettyman in regard to the debating contest. It was decided to prepare a list of fifteen men of this city to be asked as judges, three at each meeting. Owing to the death of a relative of one of the debaters there was no debate. The Filipino debate will take place at the next regular meeting on March 20.

The A. H. S. feels confident of its chances for winning one of the Post Moving picture machines. At the last standing announced, according to the number of votes it stood fifth, yet according to the number of votes per capita it stands first. The machines will be given to the ten schools securing the greatest number of votes per capita.

Only twelve days lapse before the second annual apperance of the Alexandria High School players in "The Preserving of a Smith." The return engagement of the all-star cast has been assured, according to the advance announcement made several days ago. Besides the play there will be a large number of vocal and instrumental selections, and the chorus work in the play is one of the features. The play will be given Thursday and Friday nights, March 24 and 25, in the Westminister Building. Don't forget the dates.

Preparations are being made for a "suffragette" mock trial by girls in the High School. The case it is understood will be a trial for breaking the speeding laws. Another big murder trial, similar to the one some time ago, is expected to be gotten off at the end of the year. The girls' trial will not be staged until after the play.

The first six weeks of the second term ended yesterday. Reports will be distributed next week. Only two more six week' periods intervene between now and the close of school.

The third year, as well as all the other classes, regret the illness and recent operation Mr. S. G. Blanton, who is now in Washington. They hope for his speedy recovery.

LOST $7,000 IN POKER

Checks Given in the Hands of the Police and Have Not Been Cashed.

Norfolk, Va., March 13— It is reported that a certain very wealthy resident of a nearby State came to Norfolk a few days ago and had not been in the city long before he met five or six neatly dressed and very likable fellows. As the day wore on the visitor was invited to a house on Brewer street, and there he soon became engaged in a very quiet game of cards. The stakes were big but the stranger had plenty of money and that phase of the matter made no difference. When the very quiet little game broke up the visitor found that he was the loser to the extent of about $7,000, and he gave five very goodlooking checks to pay the loss. It looked like a big killing for the very amiable young fellows, who had taken such a very keen interest in the out of town participant in the game.

But, their dreams of sudden wealth were not realized. In an informal sort of way, the visitor made a report of the affair, so rumor had it, to to the police and the police very promptly rounded up the five or six very affable and well dressed young men. The checks were found in their possession and were handed over to the officers. The loser was notified, and it was thought that he would be promptly on the scene to prosecute. He was not. On the other hand, he declined to appear against the very well dressed young men and, it is said, left Norfok for another State.

When Chief Kizer was aske dabout this report he at first declined to discuss it. Afterwards he admitted that such a case had been brought to his attention and that the checks, amounting to about $7,000 and on various banks by the out of town man were still in the hands of the police.

Asked if he was making an effort to get the loser in the card game to come to Norfolk and swear out warrants for the arrest of the men who won his money, Major Kizer replied that he was and that if the complainant did appear the cases would be prosecuted. No names were given.

FRENCH STEAMER SUNK.

Captured by German Auxiliary Cruiser in South Atlantic.

Buenos Aires, March 13.—The Diario announces that the British steamer Churchill has arrived at Pernambuco with the crew and 143 passengers of the French steamer Guadeloupe.

The Gundeloupe was sunk near the island of Fernanndo de Noronha, in the south Atlantic 125 miles off the east extremity of Brazil, to which country it belongs, by the German auxiliary cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm. The Gundeloupe sailed from Buenos Aires February 13 for Bordeaux.

The steamer Guadeloupe was a vessel of 2,974 tons, and was built in 1907. She was owned by the French Line.

Galveston, Tex., March 13.—The British steamship Indian City, which sailed from Galveston for Havre February 18, has been sunk, according to a cablegram received here by her agents. She carried 14,026 bales of cotton, constituting her first cargo. The cablegram came from Liverpool. No details were given, but the destruction is supposed to have been due to a German subamrine.

Serious bread riots at Budapest are reported. Because of lack of lack of flour the bakers were unable to meet the demand for bread and their shops were stormed by the infuriated populace. Order was restored only with great difficulty. Vienna bakers, fearing for their lives, have petitioned for an allotment of flour from the sacks seized by the military authorities.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

PRINCE EITEL FRIEDRICH.

Captain of Bark Frye Says German German Steamer is Here to Stay.

Newport News, Va., March 13.—"I can say positively that the Prinz Eitel Friedrich never will leave this port until the end of the European war."

This declaration was made last night by Captain H. H. Kiehne, master of the American sailing ship William P. Frye, which the German raider destroyed in the South Atlantic Ocean January 28 last.

"Why do you make such a positive statement," the American captain was asked.

"That I will not say," he replied. "But I know she has come here to stay until the war is over.

Notwithstanding this, the commander of the Eitel Friedrich last night reiterated that it is his purpose to leave American waters as soon as possible.

Regarding the reason for the sinking of the Aemrican ship Frye by the German curiser, it was reported last night that officers after finding in the Frye's papers a record that the ship with its cargo of wheat was bound for "Queentown, Falmouth or Plymouth for orders." Under the British proclamation on contraband it was pointed out that foodstuffs were classed as conditional contraband if consigned to a fortified port. Plymouth, England, is a fortified port.

Capt. Kiehne also threw additional light on the coming of the Eitel Friedrich to this American port, and insisted that the German commander did not choose Newport News hazardly as a port of safety.

"After February 20," said the captain, "the Germans entirely changed their tactics. Up to that time, whenever a smoke smudge was sighted there was a cry of 'Alarm, alarm,' every man was ordered to the guns, and the ship sailed straight for the smoke. After the sinking of the Willerby there was a change.

"From then on the Friedrich ran from everything. On the last three nights I knew that the officers were getting the wireless from British cruisers. On the last two nights before passing into the Virginia capes, the order to the crew was, "Everybody to the guns; nobody to sleep.' On the last night two of the British cruisers were within 10 miles of us."

Capt. Kiehne said that seevral of the German officers, asked him ten or twelve days ago if he knew where they were going to land.

"I told them I knew they were going to Newport News, where they could find a good shipyard," said Kiehne.

"Then they asked me what I considered the best course to follow to escape detection. I told them to hang to the longitude right up and then strike due yesterday westerly into the coast. That is exactly what they did."

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, had I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do my work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.
